Leicester, Sunday June 18th

Dear Mr Stiggiman, I recd. the accompanying letter from my father last evng; just as it is, I send it to you, as you could in no better way understand just what he wishes. And I will ask the favour that you will, yourself, reply to his letter, on the several points it suggests. - Address, Samuel May, No. 1. Broad St. Boston.

Very truly, Yrs. S. M. Jr

{ F. Jackson wrote me that you had decided on some other course for Bush.

My dear son

I cannot learn that any measures are taking to give to the Public in pamphlet form that most timely, appropriate and excellent Sermon of Mr Higginson's, printed in the Commonwealth a few days since. ⁴ I have read with deep interest & entire satisfaction. it ought to be so printed & preserved to accompany those of Theodore Parker & James Freeman Clarke. — I am ready & desirous to print it at my own cost & place it on sale before the public & otherways distribute it. — do obtain Mr Higginson's consent to this, & say whether the copy in the Commonwealth is correct, — I presume Mr H — will prefer to correct the proof if publish. — let me hear from you soon as convenient.

at Rochester we are "so, so" — pretty well. — Frank & Mary & Charley not quite up to the mark, — rest of us well.

another mean mean attempt to turn us out of the Music Hall on the Sabbath — the poor creatures could make no headway tho' headed by G. F. Curtis.

Love to Sarah & the Child — truly ever

G. J. May.
